

January 2010

Dear Potential Judge:

Once again, it is that time of year when Oregon DECA invites you, members of the business community, to make a difference in the lives of students. Please join us at the 2010 State Career Development Conference as a competitive event judge.

At this conference, there are over 40 competitive events and over 700 student competitors seeking an opportunity to advance to the DECA International competition in Louisville, Kentucky in April. Please consider judging on Monday, February 22 and/or Tuesday, February 23 in Portland. Judges will be asked to score interviews, role-plays and/or case study scenarios with students and teams. Ask anyone who has judged these events before and they will tell you how much fun they had seeing these dedicated student competitors in action.

Again, Oregon DECA needs almost 150 judges for this event. Please consider volunteering your time and talent. If you are able to join us this year as a judge, please send back the sign-up form via mail or fax by Friday, January 29. The form can also be submitted electronically by visiting the "Business: Get Involved" section of our Web site (www.oregondeca.org/judge). In addition, please do not hesitate to call (503.385.4715) or email (lee.letsch@wesd.org) Lee Letsch, our judge coordinator, with any questions or registration information.

Thank you for your commitment to help shape the future leaders of our state.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Trina K. Lee". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "T" and a long, sweeping underline.
