(Name of High School) MARKETING STUDENTS TO ATTEND
DECA STATE CAREER DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

The following students from (Name of High School) will be attending the Oregon DECA State Career Development Conference in Portland at the Red Lion Hotel on the River – Jantzen Beach, on February 26-28, 2012: (List the students attending the conference).

DECA prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs for careers in marketing, finance, hospitality and management in high schools and colleges around the globe.

By attending this conference, students have the opportunity to compete in a variety of marketing situations. Many of the competitions reflect the actual business atmosphere. Judges are professionals from the business sector who are able to provide a true representation of the industry. Approximately 150 business professionals evaluate over 700 members competing. The award winners at this conference will proceed to the DECA International Career Development Conference in Salt Lake City, UT this April.

The DECA competitive events program is designed to develop marketing skills within its members and to prepare them to be outstanding citizens and future business leaders as well.

Additionally, conference delegates will elect the state officers for the 2012-2013 school year, have the opportunity to meet DECA members from all over the state, and interact with business and community leaders.
